September 2010

WACG Guild Meeting: Instead of our regular meeting, the Guild will meet for sand painting on Saturday, September 18 at 10:15 am on the beach just north of the Springmaid pier. WACG will provide the paper and acrylic paints. Members can bring their own supplies if they want to use something different. Wear clothes for painting and you will get wet up to your knees. Come join us to have fun and to create some very interesting designs with the help of the sand and the sea.

Notice: Due to an increased work schedule, Jackie Stacharowski is stepping down as President of WACG. There will be an election in December at our regular meeting to elect a new president and other officers to serve on the Board of Directors. If you have an interest in being on the Board and/or serving as President or other office, please contact Jackie at jackie799@gmail.com - or - Phyllis at pafadunn@aol.com or call 238-4628.

Jackie has done a tremendous job of guiding WACG for two terms as President and we appreciate all her hard work. Thank you Jackie!!

(Board Members: Call or Email Jackie for information about September Board meeting)

Joanne Ross

It always hurts to lose someone we care about. It is especially sad to say good bye to someone as special and courageous as Joanne Ross. In spite of battling Parkinson's Disease for many years, she didn't let it rob her of the things in life she loved. Even when it was painful and difficult for her to move around, she was a faithful member of WACG, almost always showing up at meetings and other events. She continued to create her beautiful artwork, often winning awards including Best In Show for her painting called "When Time Stood Still" in last year's annual Juried Exhibit at the Art Museum. She was a talented lady with a beautiful soul. We will miss her and offer our condolences to her family.
